

American Society of Hematology

SCHOLAR AWARDS LETTER-OF-INTENT FORM

Submission Deadline: May 1, 2012

To be eligible to submit a full proposal to the ASH Scholar Awards program, potential applicants must submit a completed letter-of-intent form along with a current curriculum vitae and abstract (not to exceed 350 words). The completed form and all supporting documents must be submitted to awards@hematology.org by 5 p.m. PST on Tuesday, May 1, 2012.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Last Name:	First Name:	M.I.	Degree(s):
Institution:		Position/Title:
Department:	Work Telephone:	Ext:
Mailing Address:
Work Email:
City:	State/Province:	Zip:	Country:

Please indicate the category you are applying to:

- Basic/Translational Research Fellow
- Clinical Research Fellow
- Basic/Translational Research Junior Faculty
- Clinical Research Junior Faculty

Title of Proposed Project:

Indicate your area of research as it relates to the proposed project (please select one):

- Red cell physiology & disorders
- Leukocytes, inflammation, immunology and lymphocyte biology
- Hemostasis, thrombosis & vascular wall biology
- Hematopoiesis, stem cell biology & microenvironment
- Myeloid malignancies (including myeloproliferative disorders)
- Lymphoid malignancies (including plasma cell disorders)
- Clinical BMT, stem cell transplantation, GVH, & immunization
- Gene therapy and transfer
- Genome Wide Sequencing, Imaging & Other Technology
- Cell metabolism/resistant mechanism
- Epigenetic, transcription control, MiRs
- Signal transduction/cell death
- Health services and outcomes research

Please describe why you feel you are qualified for the category that you are applying to in 6 sentences or less.

Please use this space to explain any gaps in training/employment.

CHECKLIST:

I have included:

- A completed letter-of-intent form
- Abstract
- Copy of your current CV

Completed forms should be sent via e-mail, along with the above checklist materials to awards@hematology.org by 5 p.m. PST on Tuesday, May 1, 2012.