

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF HEMATOLOGY 2010 Application for International Outreach Initiative

DIRECTIONS:

Please fill out this form. Send completed forms via e-mail to globalprograms@hematology.org, via fax to +1 202 776 0545, or via postal mail to: 2021 L Street, Suite 900, Washington, DC, 20036. Please note that applications will be processed according to when they are submitted.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Applicants must be affiliated with an institution or a cooperative group of institutions within an eligible region. ASH cannot consider applications from individual hematologists.
- Applicants must be from developing countries. The most current list of developing countries can be found on the ASH Web site at: <http://hematology.org/Global/2634.aspx>

APPLICANT CONTACT INFORMATION

Fields marked with  are required. Be sure to print clearly:

Name:
Institution Name:
<input type="checkbox"/> Hospital <input type="checkbox"/> Medical School <input type="checkbox"/> Private Clinic <input type="checkbox"/> Other (please specify)
Department:
Shipping Address (NO PO BOXES):
Address Type: <input type="checkbox"/> Home Address <input type="checkbox"/> Institutional Address <input type="checkbox"/> Other (please specify)
City:	Postal Code:
State/Province/Region:	Country:
Phone:	E-mail:
How did you learn about the IOI?

Tax ID or CNPJ Number (Required for all Brazilian applicants)
--

MATERIALS INCLUDED:

All applicants will receive the following materials:

- Blood Online, an online subscription to the official journal of the American Society of Hematology.
- Abstract CD-ROM from the most recent ASH annual meeting;
- Education Program Session DVD-ROM;
- Highlights of ASH™ DVD-ROM;
- State-of-the-Art Symposium DVD-ROM;
- ASH Self-Assessment Program (ASH-SAP) Online 4th Edition

JUSTIFICATION

Please provide a brief statement describing how the materials will be used and distributed at your institution: